Eating out

in Milford Haven

There's an impressive range of restaurants and cafés at Milford Waterfront with magnificent views overlooking the boats at Milford Marina and the Milford Haven Waterway.

Milford Waterfront's food scene is bustling all day long from a hearty breakfast or brunch, coffee and catch ups, lunch al fresco to afternoon tea, an evening meal or a cocktail or two with friends. It's the perfect place to hold a work Christmas party or meet up with friends and family for a mulled wine and mince pie in the run up to Christmas or between Christmas and New Year.

At dulse, located in the 4* Tý Hotel you'll enjoy an exciting dining experience where only the freshest produce from the Pembrokeshire coast and countryside is used. You'll also find a strong influence from local suppliers on the menu at Martha's Vineyard. Step back in time and enjoy a unique vintage dining feel at Madison's Bar & Restaurant.

Foam's impressive glass room is a great option for dining al fresco with fantastic views. An extensive menu of signature cocktails awaits you at The Harbourmaster which can be enjoyed on the popular veranda. Stack'd by Sand & Stone is a restaurant where burger making is an art form - stack your burger as you choose and don't forget to add some chicken and fries to the side.

Nautico's, Milford Waterfront's newest restaurant offers homemade classics with a relaxed and friendly atmosphere.

By day, the Spinnaker Café, Freckles Café, and the Crow's Nest Café all serve breakfast, light bites, lunch and refreshments with indoor and outdoor seating. You'll be sure to find a Baileys hot chocolate and seasonal delights on one of the menus. Pick up a graze box from The Cheesy Cow or some freshly baked pastries and doughnuts from Sugar Loaf, or wrap up warm and enjoy a stroll around the Waterfront with an ice cream from Velluto Gelato.

Heading into the town centre, you'll find the newly renovated Lord Nelson Hotel, an exciting new boutique hotel, restaurant and wedding venue, as well as a range of places to grab a bite to eat for breakfast, lunch or dinner.

If you're looking for a gift for an art enthusiast, then look no further than these two galleries that display an assortment of mediums, including paintings, photography, sculpture and ceramics, and beautiful gifts.

For those that are tricky to buy for and really do have everything, we're sure that a Pembrokeshire Lottery gift subscription would be much appreciated. They'll have the chance of winning £2,000 in the weekly draw, plus a monthly superdraw with £4,000 or £8,000 up for grabs. In December, the value of the monthly superdraw increases to £10,000 just in time for Christmas!

We may be in the depths of winter, but if you know an outdoor enthusiast who loves kayaking and paddleboarding, a voucher to do this with Milford Beach Activity Centre might be just the thing. Open throughout the summer months, it would give the recipient something to look forward to for 2024.

If you'd like to have some locally landed fish or shellfish over the festive period to enjoy with family and friends, The Fish Plaice is the place to go. Pop in and see what's been landed that day and get some tips on the best way to cook your catch too.

Just a few steps away, you'll find Welsh Lobster Co offering lobsters, brown crabs, spider crabs (Welsh king crab), whelks and wild Welsh mussels.

On Charles Street and Robert Street, you'll find a wonderful selection of independent shops including Connie & Jo, Hector's Cards & Gifts, Flowers and Favours, Twilight Gems and many more.
